

THE CITY.

Courts adjourned.
Blustery yesterday.
They agreed to disagree.
The city is again free of court.
Well, are you going to incorporate?
The trains, thugs and bunks must go.
Christmas will be a big day in Las Vegas and royally celebrated.
That broken down wagon has been removed from the plaza. Thanks.
The marriage bell of this city must be cracked. Weddings are few and far between.
Puck comes to the front with more interesting cartoons this week. Puck is a daisy.
That absurdity on our esteemed contemporary is all but, too, too, in the language of Oscar.

The rink is not so much of a success as formerly and the attendance is nightly growing lighter.

Prof. Boffa says the girl has gone clear back on him since the affair got into the newspapers.

The justice machine has been closed down for repairs. It will be in running order by spring, however.

A bad boy with a bad gun in a bad temper shot a bad dog in a bad way on Bridge street yesterday afternoon.

You can have your cards written while you wait for them at the west side post-office the remaining three Sundays of the month.

A corrected railroad time table appears in another column that went into effect on the 5th instant. Read it and keep posted.

The city is chuck full of anxious office seekers who are almost dying for incorporation. What are you going to do about it?

Jake has got another girl, but you bet your life he "don't" make more aggravations or else you found out. No more promise de breach.

Go to the Opera house today and listen to the discourse of Dr. Gould. The large house is crowded every Sunday night and if the rush continues it will be a great scheme to sell reserved seats.

Mike Maney can now go back to the ranch and labor without further disturbance from the law until the March term of the district court. A new judge will probably warm the chief magistrate's chair by that time.

The sidewalk in front of the new structure adjoining the First National bank will not be obstructed much longer. The work is progressing nicely and rapidly and its outside work completion will be but the work of a few days.

That poor simple thing on the Obit has our sym. We believe he does his best and tries to do what is right, but a thing without horse sense, or hog judgment, can't be expected to fill the position of a man with ordinary reasoning abilities.

One of the east side belles treated quite a number of her friends to an oyster supper at her rooms last night. It was a sensible little gathering composed of both ladies and gentlemen. Such events should occur more frequently.

We know of one wedding in the near future and another one probable. Brace up young men, remember you are not complete without the other sex. Begin the new year under such favorable circumstances and the harvest will come in time.

Mr. F. Adams, Hot Springs, yesterday lost the warrant given him for services on the Maney jury. Any one finding the same will confer a favor by leaving it at Mr. Givens' sewing machine establishment, or at this office. It is of no service to anyone but Mr. Adams.

Belden & Wilson enjoyed the best trade yesterday experienced since in business. Notwithstanding the prevailing wind and sand, the store during the greater part of the day was comfortably filled with customers throughout the business hours. The straws show which way the wind blows.

Mr. Ruggles having made arrangements with Mr. Tiger for desk room in the postoffice, will be pleased to meet any and all desirous of having neatly written cards on any Sunday between this and New Years. It takes him but a few minutes to do the job up in the most artistic style.

The regular monthly meeting of the Band of Hope will take place at the Academy at 4 p. m. today. Concert exercises will fill up the hour. All are cordially invited to attend. All who have temperance song books are requested to bring them. A collection will be taken for literature.

The citizens should do something to protect themselves and their property against the present invasion of hard characters. They don't want work and their purpose is not one to be admired by our law abiding community. Some immediate steps should be taken to rid the city of this gang or combination.

The names which follow have found a place on the "Roll of Honor" in the preparatory department of the Las Vegas Seminary, during the term which closed December 5, 1884: Lucille Stoner, Lena Foster, Ollie Fort, Dollie Haines, Walter Spordler, Willie Huggins, Eugene Barnes, Tommie Huxon, Carrie Cameron, Alice Cavanaugh, Nettie Jones, Alice McRaney, Nellie Dyer, Jennie Keller and Flora Thomas. The necessary requirements for attaining this honor are punctuality and regularity in attendance, good deportment and a high grade of scholarship.

One of the delivery boys for the telegraph office started the neighborhood yesterday afternoon by firing three shots from the doorway leading to the office. The object of his enmity was a poor dog, who, he says was poisoned and nearly dead, and to put the brute out of misery the boy attempted to shoot him to death. It was the same dog we made mention of some months ago who was poisoned, run over by several light vehicles and three transfer wagons loaded with grain, stones, kicked and otherwise abused, and then did not die. Yesterday he yelled a little as the three balls perforated his form but after all was over he betook himself to the river, as on the previous occasion, and soon returned to Bridge street apparently in good health, and seemed to enjoy the sport hugely. That dog was not born to die. The boy showed his good sense by standing within his door to do the shooting, as under such circumstances he could not be arrested, at the same time it was a very dangerous piece of business and should not be repeated.

The jury in the case of the Territory vs. Maney appeared in court yesterday morning at 10 o'clock and through the foreman, Deacon Wooster, returned a verdict to the effect that they had agreed to disagree. This was received by the court and the jury discharged of further duty. Maney is again at liberty with the same bail as before, $10,000, and will have another hearing at the March term. The court after disposing of a few civil suits, adjourned until spring. The judge, lawyers and other attaches from other towns return home this morning. This special term amounted to but little and the long docket goes over until next session.

At the meeting of the Sergeant Ben Hopper Post, G. A. R., held at Wallace Thursday evening, the annual election of officers took place and the following were selected without opposition: Commander, James L. Morris; senior vice commander, T. W. McIlvaine; junior vice commander, Benjamin Barber; chaplain, Edwin J. Edgar; officer of the day, Warren H. Moore; officer of the guard, Joseph D. Campbell; quartermaster, George H. Moore; adjutant, S. H. Bogardus; sergeant, Major Joseph D. Heidrick; quartermaster sergeant, Orrin S. Brown; delegate, Warren H. Moore; alternate, T. W. McIlvaine. It was decided to have the installation ceremonies in public.

If in search of an appropriate Christmas gift and one that will be appreciated, call in at Harry Chamberlin's jewelry store and examine his full, complete and most carefully selected stock. His assortment this year by far exceeds any display ever made before by him during his business intercourse in Las Vegas, and he is disposing of goods at bottom prices, not desiring to carry them over a year. His line of case goods in table ware is quite extensive, together with his assortment of gold and silver filigree work, made up in various designs. Give Harry a call before purchasing elsewhere and we feel confident in asserting that you will be satisfied and treated justly.

Wm. A. Vincent, Esq., the young and bright attorney of this city, leaves this morning for St. Joe, St. Louis and New York, in charge of a number of insurance policies placed in his hands by Blanchard & Co., of Socorro, whose store and stock of goods were destroyed by fire on the night of the 26th of July. Mr. Vincent is instructed to prosecute several companies who have declined to pay in full the loss on the stock of goods. Rich developments are promised during the progress of these suits as it appears that this is a clear case of bluff and blackmailing. These companies have to be sued east, as they had no license to transact business in this territory. The companies, on the building, have paid in full. The parties in interest deserve credit for refusing to compromise and for bringing suits so far away from home. Their stock was insured for only about half of its value. Judge Blanchard was wired several telegrams lately offering terms nearly equivalent to payment in full, but he says he will not give up a single inch of ground and will show up the doings of a certain local agent living not far from Las Vegas, and who figures quite prominently in this transaction.

PERSONAL PENCILINGS.

Col. Wm. Breeden returns to Santa Fe this morning.

We noticed W. Fabian, of Fort Union, in the city yesterday.

Major R. E. Twitchell was ever from the ancient yesterday.

Dr. Robbins leaves today for a trip to Missouri, principally to Kansas City.

Miguel Romero's family departed yesterday for San Miguel on a short visit.

M. A. Breeden will accompany the court outfit back to the ancient this morning.

Mr. Phillips, clerk of the court, will take the records of the special session to Santa Fe today.

R. A. Savageau returned yesterday from his visit to Albuquerque, where he has been for some days.

Col. Barnes returns home by the early express this morning. Tom Catron will ride on the same train.

C. H. Benjamin, one of Springer's foremost citizens, is sight-seeking in the metropolis of the south-west.

J. S. Carpenter, that perpetual talker, is back from his excursion to the south looking as fresh and saucy as ever.

Mrs. M. A. Otero and daughter, Mamie, returned yesterday from Fort Union where they have been for some days on a visit to friends.

C. F. Rudolph, son of M. Rudolph, wife and child, returned home yesterday. Mr. Rudolph came to this city to have his sick child doctored.

Judge S. B. Axtell will pay his respects to the sleepy village this morning, court having adjourned last night until the regular term a month.

H. W. Wyman, our enterprising liquor merchant, returned yesterday from his southern business trip. He reports having disposed of a large quantity of holiday goods.

Eugenio Romero came up from his business trip to Socorro yesterday. He is engaged in the erection of the new court house at that place and will probably return on Monday.

G. W. Taylor, the traveling man who disposes of wet groceries for R. C. Heise, returned yesterday from the south. He says times are a little quiet down that way, but they will indulge the sparkling fluid all the same.

J. Osfield, the heavy talker of Colfax county who made a speech worthy of being put on record, concerning the and grant question, at the democratic convention, spent one short day in the city, returning to his home at Raton yesterday.

F. E. Evans, the east side photographer, leaves today for the World's Fair at New Orleans, accompanied by his wife. He goes strictly on business and upon his return will bring with him photographs of the whole business. No need of your going, Frank will bring back everything complete.

Jealousy, thou art about to cause much trouble and hard feelings in a flock of white lambs. The "vacant chair" has been beautifully spoken of in the language of the poet, but the "vacant chair" is too much for toleration, and our "god men," inspired by some evil spirit and designed motives, will soon wage war upon the innocent, turning forth the fury and the wrath contained within their breasts and exposing to public criticism and indignation their true principles. We are opposed to your determination and so you will find the christian people of our city when it comes to a test of right and justice. You caused one bad smell by treachery and deceit, but you have reached your goal, your race is run. "Love thy neighbor." "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you," etc.

PILES!! PILES!! PILES!!
A Sure Cure Found at Last.

No One Need Suffer!
A sure cure for Blind, Bleeding, Itching and Ulcerated Piles has been discovered by Dr. Williams' (an Indian Remedy) called Dr. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment. A single box has cured the worst chronic cases of 25 or 30 years standing. No one need suffer long. After applying this wonderful medicine, lotions, instruments and electricity do more harm than good. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment absorbs the tumors, silences the intense itching (particularly at night after getting warm in bed), acts as a poultice, gives instant relief, and is prepared only for Piles (itching of the private parts, and for nothing else).

Read what the Hon. J. M. Coffinberry of Cleveland says about Dr. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment: "I have used scores of Pile Cures, and it affords me pleasure to say that I have never found anything which gave such immediate and permanent relief as Dr. Williams' Indian Ointment." For sale by all druggists and mail order receipts of price. See ad. k-13-11
